LECTURES ON THE MODERN REVOLUTION.—We learn with great pleasure that Julius Fröbel will this evening commence at the Society Library a course of six lectures upon the revolution which has in our day so shaken the political and social system in the old world, and which is yet far from concluded.

Mr. Fröbel is of all men especially qualified to treat this subject with interest and profit.

Occupying a high position among German savans and progressive politicians, he brings to the explanation of this great movement a profound insight, a clear faith in Human destiny, and the fruit of wide and varied experience in some of the most intense scenes of modern history.

The present course being designed for delivery before a German audience will be in the German language; we trust, however, that Mr. Fröbel may be induced to repeat it in English for the benefit of the public at large. Among the special subjects he will treat, "America and the Fate of European Culture," "The Symptoms of Dissolution in European Culture," "The Red Republic," "The Great social System," "The Fusion of Races," "The Absolute

Republic," &c. &c.

NEW-YORK FIREMEN.—The Phenix Hook and Ladder Company No. 3 arrived in Philadelphia on Monday, says the Ledger, by the steamboat New-Philadelphian, on their way to Baltimore and Washington. They were received and entertained at the Baltimore hotel by a committee of the Northern Liberty Line Company. The visitors are a fine looking set of men, wearing white fire coats, red vests, black pants, and fire hats peculiar to New-York City. Each member has with him a fancy dress cap, for parades. Their hook and ladder apparatus, which they have with them, is a novelty, and attracted much notice. The carriage is about 20 feet in length, with ladders of sufficient length to reach the top of a five-story building. The company numbers 16 men, and is accompanied by Dingley's celebrated brass band. The visitors will return by the railroad on Friday, arriving here about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They will be the guests of the Northern Liberty Line Company.

COLMAN'S SALE OF RARE BOOKS, PICTURES AND

COLLECTORIES.—This great sale, which has called forth so much interest among amateurs and bibliophiles in all parts of the country, commences this morning, and will continue for eight days, until the whole valuable collection is disposed of. The occasion presents rare attractions to the purchasers of curiosities, and will not fail to draw together a large concourse of people. It is evident that such a collection of unique articles is offered to the attention of the public, and we have no doubt their distribution will cause as great an excitement as the drawing of the Art-Union.

FIRE.—An attempt was made on Monday night to fire the premises of Essex-st. The roofs of this and No. 3 were almost destroyed before the fire was put under. The houses were not very valuable.

—There was a fire yesterday morning about 9 o'clock in a carpenter's shop in Smith-st. near Hammett-st. The damage sustained was not of great extent.

BY A. H. MULLER.—April.

1 lot on Westcott-st., between Ninth and Tenth avs., $2,000.

House and lot south side Westcott-st., between Sixth and Seven avs., 300.

RECEPTION OF THE NEW-YORK FIREMEN AT BALTIMORE.—Hook and Ladder Company No. 3, of New-York, arrived at Baltimore at 104 o'clock, Monday night. The reception was most brilliant. It is estimated that there were 8,000 firemen in the Torchlight Procession. After parading through the various streets with music, banners, and all the paraphernalia of the Fire Department, a splendid entertainment was given to the strangers at the Vigilant Engine House. The festivities broke up at a reasonable hour, and the strangers were escorted to their quarters at the Susquehanna House.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The trial of Albert G. Bagley was continued yesterday. The prosecution finished, and the counsel for the defense opened and proceeded to examine his first witness, when it was discovered that one of the jurors was unacquainted with the English language. When the Court ordered the Jury to be locked up till this morning, when the master will be looked into.

THE LADIES' FAIR of the Independent Christian Society (Rev. T. L. Harris, Pastor) will be held this afternoon and evening only at St. Paul's School, to aid in building their proposed Church. There will be a pleasant social gathering, with a great variety of useful as well as ornamental articles for sale, and an evening may be agreeably and probably spent there.

THE RHINE.—This fine panorama is till exhibited nightly to admiring audiences. It is a view of one of the most romantic portions of all the earth, and so like is the picture that one seems to be transported to the waves of the beautiful river and gliding among the noble scenes depicted.

LANCH.—The steamship Florida, of 1,500 tons will be launched on Thursday (to-morrow) morning, at 5 o'clock, from the ship-yard of W. H. Webb, foot of Sachem-st. This is the last of the new steamers for the New-York and Savannah Line. The Florida is expected to be ready for about 1st of July.

TO EUROPE.—We hear Bayne's panorama of a Voyage to Europe well spoken of by those who have been over the ground and water of its locality. Some of its scenes are most excellently represented.

THE DIRECTOR of the Havana Italian Opera has thought proper to delay the first representation till Thursday evening, in order to allow the artists time to recover from the fatigues of a long journey.

NO MUSIC AT PRESENT.—The Hutchinson Family give their last concert in this City, prior to a visit to Albany, to-night at the Tabernacle, when they will give a few of their best songs.

GRAND LARCEY.—James Curry was arrested by officers of the Third Ward, on a charge made by James Gilbert of stealing a $50 bill, in small bills and in silver.

We call the attention of hardware merchants and others to the sale of Jacob S. Plan, 29 Williams-

Street, New-York.
